

Gudelines for MA Live Bid

Live bidding grants its participants to join auctions held by Mainichi Auction Inc. real time via internet connection. This "Mainichi Auction Live Bidding Precautions" (hereinafter referred to as the "Precautions") is a summary designated to guide its users. Upon using this service, all participants are deemed to have agreed to these Terms and Conditions in advance, as well as by all the terms and conditions of the MA (Mainichi Auction) Terms and Conditions.

We require all prospective live bidders including returning clients to complete the prior registration via our website to bid in the relevant sale by 18:00 (JST) 2 days before the auction. If the sale is held for several days, the deadline is 18:00 (JST) 2 days before the first day of the sale.

We are not liable for any failure to purchase the lots or for the purchase of the incorrect lots as a result of the following reasons:

- ① software failure or inability to access the internet
- ② client's improper operation of their devices
- ③ failing to make bidding decisions in time, and as such has the auctioneer judged.
